Big (Beatley Gravitt, Inc.) Wins Best In Print Award

RICHMOND, VA—Big (Beatley Gravitt, Inc.) recently received a Best In Print 2009 Award of Excellence from the Printing Industries of Virginia (PIVA). The award honors Big's design work on the 2009 annual report for Dynex Capital, Inc. The award also recognizes the printing work of James River Press.

Big, founded in Richmond more than 45 years ago, is a full-service, nationally recognized marketing and advertising agency. For the last half-century, Big has helped companies large and small—from Fortune 500 companies to local non-profits—in a wide range of marketing arenas, including corporate communications, investor relations, branding and identity, community outreach, packaging, and sales, employing the full range of media, from print to broadcast to direct mail to interactive. For more information, contact Ed Lacy, President, at 355.9151.

The Printing Industries of Virginia (PIVA) provides value through education, networking opportunities, information, and advocacy to Virginia printers and their suppliers. Annually, Best In Print entries are judged by Printing Industries of America experts. In 2009, the judges awarded 195 First Place awards and 322 Awards of Excellence to printers and agencies throughout the state.

Dynex Capital, Inc., is a real estate investment trust, or REIT, which invests in mortgage loans and securities on a leveraged basis. The company was incorporated in Virginia in 1987 and commenced operations in 1988. Headquarters are in Glen Allen, Virginia. Dynex is publicly traded on the New York Stock Exchange with a common stock issue under ticker symbol DX and with a preferred stock issue under ticker symbol DXPRD.
